LEARNING THEATER PRESENTATIONS IN THE EXHIBIT HALL

By submitting the attached application for a Learning Theater, the Applicant (also referred to as the "Supporting Company") agrees to be bound by the following Terms and Conditions

DESCRIPTION

The American College of Chest Physicians is pleased to offer an opportunity to present information on specific disease states or new treatments or technologies to CHEST attendees in a live mini-theater setting. Presentations will be held on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. Take advantage of meeting with key decision-makers to share new research; discuss clinical protocols; conduct product demonstrations; or highlight new products, equipment, and services. All applications are subject to review and approval by CHEST. This application and the Learning Theater opportunities are subject to the attached Learning Theater Terms and Conditions.

CHEST will provide (these items are subject to change):

- A dedicated mini-theater space within the exhibit hall with seating (theater-style). The number of available seats is subject to change.
- Stage riser with standing lectern
- Standard 22" x 28" signage outside the theater indicating this is a non-CME presentation
- One-time complimentary use of preregistration attendee mailing labels via a third party used to promote your event. Final mailer must be approved by CHEST.
- AV setup:
 - o Audio system including one (1) lectern microphone and one (1) wireless microphone
 - o Video system including one (1) projector, a video switcher, slide advance remote with laser pointer, and one (1) projection screen

The Supporting Company will be responsible for all other marketing and logistical expenses, including:

- Development of the program and/or special activity
- Production and distribution of invitations
- Meal function and/or refreshments (optional)
- Any special setups other than listed above
- Providing the following disclaimer on all marketing materials: "This is a non-CME event and does not qualify for CME, CE, or MOC credit. This event is not part of the official CHEST Annual Meeting 2024 conference sessions. This event is not endorsed by CHEST and does not reflect the views or opinions of CHEST."
- Ensuring attendance at the Learning Theater is limited to registered CHEST attendees
- Ensuring that participants are aware of any sunshine act reporting requirements for the activity

LEARNING THEATER TERMS AND CONDITIONS – CHEST 2024

By submitting the attached application for a Learning Theater, the Supporting Company agrees to be bound by the following Terms and Conditions.

- 1. Acceptance. All applications are subject to review and approval by CHEST. CHEST reserves the right to reject any Learning Theater application for any or no reason. Applications are not approved until and unless confirmed in writing by CHEST.
- 2. Use of Learning Theater Space. Supporting Company will have access to the designated space to conduct the Learning Theater described in the application. CHEST will provide the space, setup, and limited support set forth in the application. Anything not listed in the application is the responsibility of Supporting Company. Supporting Company shall use the Learning Theater space only for the activity identified in the application.
- 3. Fees. Supporting Company shall pay CHEST the fees corresponding to the selected Learning Theater within 30 days of submission. Starting June 1, full payment is due with submission. Failure to pay the total fees by the corresponding date will result in cancellation of Supporting Company's Learning Theater, and CHEST may resell the slot.
- 4. Content. Supporting Company is solely responsible for the topic and content of its Learning Theater. Supporting Company warrants and represents that it, including will comply with all applicable laws in the marketing and conducting of its Learning Theater, including, without limitation, those relating to marketing of products, medical information, and intellectual property. Supporting Company further warrants and represents that it has the legal right to use and reproduce any content used or distributed as part of the Learning Theater and that no such content will violate the intellectual, property, or proprietary rights of any other person or entity.
- 5. Prohibited Content. CHEST does not accept Learning Theaters that display, promote, or sell cosmetics or beauty products, nerve stimulation and/or anti-aging equipment or devices (including infrared, LED, TENS, and/or EMS units), drugs, devices, or therapies that have not been approved by the FDA, as well as any other products or services contrary to the mission of CHEST. CHEST reserves the right to reject any application in its sole discretion, including to cancel a Learning Theater at any time, up to and including the date of the Learning Theater and provide a refund.
- 6. Disclaimers. Supporting Company shall not state or imply that the Learning Theater, its content, or any statements or claims made during the Learning Theater, represent the views of, or are endorsed by, CHEST. Supporting Company shall include the disclaimers in all written materials as set forth in the application.
- 7. Attendees. Supporting Company shall limit attendance at its Learning Theater to registered attendees of CHEST 2024. Any exception must be approved in writing in advance by CHEST.
- 8. Health and Safety. The Supporting Company shall comply with all health and safety requirements, guidelines, and directives of CHEST or the facility. CHEST reserves the right to add additional requirements at any time by written notice.
